Mr. Pieters following Adry, mentions an edition of 1645. As no other bibliographer has ever met with it, and as it is not in Daniel Elzevier's catalogue of 1674, it is probably apocryphal.

AMOURS de Catulle. Par le Sr D. L. C. Suivant la copie à Paris, chez Claude Barbin, 1680. 2 vols. in 1. sm. 12mo.

The author was the Sieur de la Chapelle. This book, though mentioned in the Elzevier catalogue of 1681, is fairly printed, but certainly never issued from the Elzevier press. Either Daniel Elzevier had it printed by another printer, or there was another edition really Elzevirian now lost. The latter hypothesis seems the most probable. The edition we are now alluding to may be recognised by pp. 196 and 224 being wrongly numbered 169 and 124. The title of part 2 is on page 105.

Collation: xxiv and 240 pp.

ANDREA (T.). Brevis replicatio reposita brevi explicationi mentis humanæ. Amstelodami, typis Ludovici Elzevirii, 1653. Sm. 12mo.

This book was written in defence of the Notæ of Descartes, and not against them, as Brunet asserts.

Collation: xii and 320 pp.;—2 pp. of errata;—1 blank leaf.

ANGLERIUS (Peter Martyr). Opus epistolarum. Cui accesserunt Epistolæ Ferdinandi de Pulgar. Editio postrema. Amstelodami, typis Elzevirianis. Veneunt Parisiis, apud Fredericum Leonard, typographum regium, 1670. Folio.

"There is a folio volume with which those who have much attended to the history of the xvith century are well acquainted, purporting to be a series of letters from Anghiera to various friends between the years 1488 and 1522. They are full of interesting facts, and would be still more valuable than they are, could we put our trust in their genuineness as strictly contemporary documents. But . . . some one long since charged the author with imposture, on the ground that the letters, into which he wove the history of his times, are so full of anachronisms as to render it evident that they were fabricated afterwards."—(Hallam's Introduction to the Lit. of Europe, vol. i.).

This collection of letters is somewhat scarce. It is a reimpression of that issued at Compluti, apud Michaelem de Eguia, 1530. Folio, together with the letters of Pulgar.

Collation: xxviii and 486 pp.—title page and 94 pp. for Pulgar's letters;—2 pp. index.

ANTIGONI Carystii historiarum mirabilium collectanea. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, apud Isaacvm Elzevirivm. Anno 1619. 4to.

Collation: viii and 210 pp.—2 pp. errata.

ANTIQUÆ MUSICÆ avctores septem. Marcvs MEIBOMIVS restituit ac notis explicavit. Amstelodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1652. 2 vols. 4to.

A rare and valuable edition. It fetched £2 : 16s. at the Pieters sale, and £4 : 4s. at the Yemeniz sale.

Collation: Vol. i., xlviii pp.; Aristoxenus, ii and 132 pp.—1 plate; Euclides, ii and 68 pp.—1 plate; Nicomachus, ii and 60 pp.;

Alypius, iv and 80 pp.—3 plates; Gaudentius, ii and 40 pp.; Bacchius, ii and 36 pp. Vol. ii.—viii pp.; Aristides, 363 pp.

ANTWOORDE op den Voorlooper der Remonstranten, teghen de Proeve van hare lasteringhen ende vremede leerstucken. Tot Leyden, by Bonaventuer ende Abraham Elzevier, ordinaris druckers der Universiteyt, 1631. 4to.

This is the Dutch version of the reply of the Leyden Professors, of which we have already noticed the Latin version, p. 5. (see Altera Appendix.) It is printed in Black Letter.

Collation: 32 pp.

ANTWOORDE van de Heeren Staten Generael der vereenichde Nederlandtsche Provintien/ opten Brief vanden Eertshertoghe van Oostenrijck/ hier achter by-ghevoeght. Ghedruckt tot Delff/ By Jan Andriessz. woonende aent Marckt-velt/ Int Gulden A/ B/ C. Men vindtse te coop by Lowijs Elsevier/ Boeckvercooper op de Sael/ inden Haghe. 4to.

Though there is no date given, the letter itself bears that of 1594, and from its character, there can be no doubt such a tract could only be printed that same year. There exist three other Dutch editions and one French one, two of which are dated 1594, and the other two undated, but none bear the name of Elzevier.

Collation: 16 unnumbered pages.

APHORISMI DE STATU. See Consilium.

APHTHONII Progymnasmata. Amsterodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1642. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: iv and 400 pp.;—10 pp. of index;—1 blank leaf.

—— dated 1645.

An exact reprint of the first edition.

Collation: as in first edition.

—— dated 1649.

This is a better printed edition than the two former.

Collation: 383 pp.;—12 unnumbered pages of index.

—— Amsterodami, apud Ludovicum et Danielem Elzevirios, 1655. Sm. 12mo.

Fourth and last edition of this work. An exact reprint of the 1649 edition. Some copies, instead of the 12 pages of index, have an Avctarium, continens variationem tractationis fabvlarvm et chreiarum, forming pp. 385 to 441; this is followed by a new index of 14 pp., fuller than the original one. (See also under Forgeries.)

Collation: same as last edition.

APOCALYPSIS Sancti Iohannis, edita charactere Syro, et Ebræo, cum versione latina. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, ex typographia Elzeviriana, 1627. 4to.

The Latin translation is said to be very literal. It is by de Dieu.

Collation: xx and 211 pp.

APOLLONII Dyscoli Historiæ commentitiæ liber. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, apud Isaacvm Elzevirivm. Anno 1620. 4to.

Collation: xx and 174 pp.—1 blank leaf.

APOLLONII Rhodii Argonavticorvm libri IV. Lvgd. Batavorvm, ex officinâ Elzeviriana. Anno 1641. 8vo.

Brunck pronounces the following flattering criticism of this edition: "Omnium pessima. . . . . Tenebricosam versionem adjecit Hœlzlinus. . . . . putidoque commentario exoneravit hominum futilissimus." Being somewhat scarce, however, it has been sold as high as £3 : 16s. at the Brunet sale.

Collation: xvi pp.;—44 pp. of prolegomena;—543 pp. of text;—368 pp. of commentaries —16 pp. index.

APOLOGIE ov déclaration des raisons pour lesquelles les trois Estats du royaume de Bohème sub utraque ont esté contraints de prendre les armes pour leur défence et conseruation. Le tout traduit en françois par S. W. L'an 1619. 4to.

Though this volume bears no name of printer, we find that the States-General, to whom the work was dedicated, debated whether to prosecute the printer or not for having omitted to place his name on the title-page; and the magistrates of Leyden wrote to their representative in the States a letter in ſavour of Isaac Elzevier, which was reprinted in the Navorscher of Amsterdam, 1863, p. 176.

The initials S. W. stand for Samuel Weiss, of Berne. The expression sub utraque refers, as the author informs us (p. 4,) to "those of the reformed religion who communicate in both kinds."

Collation: viii and 245 pp.

'Αποστολίου (Μιχαήλου) παροιμίαι. Lvgdvni Batavorum, ex officinâ Elzeviriana, A° 1619. 4to.

The same edition appeared bearing the imprint Lugd. Batav., apud Joh. et Dan. Elzevier, 1653.

Collation: xvi and 387 pp;—15 pp. unnumbered; — 1 leaf bearing: Lugd. Batav., typis Is. Elzevirii, 1619.

ARETINO (P.) Capricciosi et piaceuoli ragionamenti. Stampati in Cosmopoli. L'anno 1660. 8vo.

—— La Pvttana errante overo diologo, di Madelena è Giulia, di M. P. Aretino, cognominato il flagello de principi, il veritiro el divino. 8vo.

Under this date of 1660 there exist two editions corresponding page for page, and almost line for line. The first and handsomest may be recognised by the long z used in many marginal notes. It is to this edition that the Puttana Errante belongs. This is not the general opinion, but any one who takes the trouble to compare the type used in the latter with the notice to the reader (pp. 9-12), will see that this must be so. Besides, the pages have each 31 lines, and the paper is absolutely identical. Renouard thought the Puttana in 38 pp. was the original, and Berard, Brunet, Pieters, and others have followed him. Millot, however, and more especially Willems, have pointed out the above conclusive reasons for believing that the Puttana of 38 pages belongs to the second edition of the Regionamenti, whilst the Puttana in 54 pages belongs to the first edition. Probably the reason one sometimes finds the 38 page Puttana bound up with the first edition of the Ragionamenti is that the latter was issued alone, and many purchasers, afterwards unable to secure the first edition of the Puttana, added to it the second. The first edition was evidently printed by Jean Elzevier; the second by Daniel in 1668. (See catalogue of 1674).

The question as to the bookseller for whom the Elzeviers printed the Ragionamenti seems to be solved by a manuscript addition to the Catalogus librorum officinæ Joannis Blaeu, 1659, in the library at Brussels. The work is there designated as: Ragionamenti di Aretino, Puttana Errante, 8vo, Amsterdam, J. V. R. Now these initials stand for John Van Ravesteyn, the well-known bookseller of Amsterdam. Brunet's suggestion that Joly was the publisher has been disposed of by Willems (p. 212).

Collation: the Ragionamenti, 541 pp.;—1 blank leaf. Puttana, 54 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

ARISTOTELIS de Poetica liber. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, typis Ioannis Balduini, impensis Bonaventuræ Elzevirij, CIↃ IↃ C X. 8vo.

Edited by Heinsius.

Collation: xvi and 104 pp.

—— dated 1611.

A re-issue of the above, to which is added a treatise of Heinsius on Tragedy.

Collation: xvi and 104 pp.;—(2nd part) 253 pp.; —1 blank leaf.

Ἀριστοτέλους πολιτικῶν βιβ. θ. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, ex officinâ Elzeviriana. Anno 1621. 8vo.

Collation: xvi and 1045 pp.;—41 unnumbered pp. of index;—1 leaf bearing imprint of Isaac Elzevier.

ARISTOXENVS. NICOMACHVS. ALYPIVS. Auctores musices antiquissimi, hactenus non editi. Lugduni Batavorum ex officinâ Ludovici Elzeviri. Typis Godefridi Basson. Anno CIↃ. IↃC. XVI. 4to.

Edited by Meursius.

Collation: viii and 196 pp. (the last numbered in error 160).

ARMETZAR, ou les amis ennemis, Tragicomédie. A Leide, chez Jean Elzevier 1658. Sm. 12mo.

The name of the author, Samuel Chappuzeau, is found at the end of the dedication.

Collation: 102 pp.

ARNALDUS (M. A.). Oratio contra Iesuitas reos. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, ex officinâ Ioannis Paetsij et Ludovici Elzevirij. Anno CIↃ. IↃ. XCIV. 4to.

Collation: 76 pp.

—— The same work, to which is added Passeratii Praefatiuncula, 1595 (which see).

Collation: 91 pp.

—— Ingenua et vera Oratio ad Regem

Christianissimum prescripta, ut Iesuitæ restituantur in regno Galliæ. Lvgdvni, 1602. 4to.

Though said to be printed at Lyons and not at Leyden, there seems to be no doubt that this is the work of Louis Elzevier, for the Frankfort catalogues attribute it to him, and Louis was in the habit of printing Roman Catholic books under the false imprint of Lyons. (See Junius.)

Collation: 72 pp.

ARNISÆUS (Henningus). Doctrina politica. Amsterodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1643. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xii and 610 pp.;—19 leaves of index.

—— The same works, with extra tables. Amstelodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1651. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: 584 pp.;—73 unnumbered leaves for indices;—1 blank leaf.

ARREST donné, prononcé et exécuté contre Gilles Ledenberg. A la Haye, chez Loys Elzevir, marchand libraire à la Salle, anno 1619. Avecq privilége. On ne tient pour copies autentiques celles, qui ne sont imprimées chez le dict Loys Elzevir. 4to.

Printed in italics.

Collation: 14 pp.

ARREST donné, et exécuté contre Huges de Grot. A la Haye, chéz Loys Elzevir, marchand libraire à la Salle, anno 1619. Avec privilége. On ne tient pour copies autenticques que celles, qui sont imprimées chez le dict Loys Elzeuire (sic). 4to.

Printed in italics.

Collation: 12 pp.

ARREST donné et prononcé et exécuté contre Iehan d'Oldenbarnevelt. A la Haye, chez Loys Elzevir, marchant libraire à la Salle. An. 1619. Avecq priuilége. On ne tient pour copies autenticques celles ne qui sont (sic) imprimées chez le dict Loys Elzevir. 4to.

The mistake above noted was corrected in some of the copies. There are two editions under the same date: the best is printed in italics, the other in Roman characters. There is also a forgery, for which see Vol. iii.

Collation: 16 pp.

ARREST donné, et exécuté contre Rombault Hoguerbets. A la Haye, chéz Loys Elzevir, marchand libraire à la Salle, anno 1619. Avecq privilége. On ne tient pour copies autenticques,

Printed in italics.

Collation: 12 pp.

ART (l') de parler. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris, chez André Pralard, 1676. Sm. 12mo.

Rarer than the second Elzevier edition.

Collation: xii and 336 pp.;—5 leaves of tables; —1 blank leaf.

—— dated 1679.

An exact reprint of the preceding.

Collation: same as first edition.

ART (l') de régner, ou le sage gouverneur. Tragi-comédie. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris, 1649. Sm. 12mo.

The author was Gillet de la Tessonnerie. The book appears in the official catalogue of 1650. It was printed by Bonaventura and Abraham Elzevier at Leyden.

Collation: 103 pp.

ASTERIUS (J.). Deploratio pacis germanicæ sive dissertatio de pace Pragensi, tam infaustè quam injustè inita Pragæ Bohemorum $\frac{30}{20}$ Maii M.DC.XXXV . . . Iuxta exemplar Lvtetiæ Paris- iorvm, sumptibus Sebastiani Cramoisy, typographi regii ordinarii, viâ Iacobæâ, sub Ciconiis, 1636. Cum privilegio regis. 4to.

This edition is unknown to Bibliographers, although, by comparing it with Thibault's Académie de L'Espée, it will be evident that it was printed by the Elzeviers of Leyden.

Collation: viii and 56 pp.

AUBERY. L'Histoire du cardinal-duc de Richelieu. A Cologne, chez Pierre du Marteau, 1666. 2 vols. Sm. 12mo.

See also under Forgeries.

Collation: vol. i, xxiv and 644 pp., not including the portrait;—50 unnumbered pages of indices;—vol. ii, viii and 482 pp. (the last wrongly numbered 842);—26 unnumbered pages of indices.

AUGUSTINUS (D. Aurelii) libri XIII Confessionum ad 3 M. SS. exemp. emendati. Opera et studio R. P. H. Sommalii e Soc. Iesv. Lugduni, apua Danielem Elzevirium, 1675. Sm. 12mo.

This handsome edition, which was printed by the widow of Jean Elzevier (compare the Bacon Ventis of 1662), is much sought after, and at the Potier sale fetched £61 : 4s.

Collation: 334 pp.;—18 unnumbered pages of index.

AVLICVS incvlpatvs ex gallico auctoris anonymi traductus a Ioach. Pastorio, Med: D. Amsterodami, apud Lud. Elzevirium, 1644. 18mo.

The anonymous author was Du Refuge. Brunet and others name Marconnet, having mistaken the editor of an edition published at Halle in 1664 for the Author.

Collation: xii and 204 pp.;—36 unnumbered pages of index.

—— 2nd edition, 1649. 18mo.

Collation: as above.

AUTORES rei venaticæ antiqui cum commentarijs Jani Vlitii. Ludg: Bat: apud Elsevirios. A° 1653. Sm. 12mo.

This is the same edition as that of 1645 (for which (see Ulitius), with slight alterations. According to Pieters, some copies, instead of 12 preliminary leaves, have 16. At the Turner sale a copy fetched £4 : 16s.

Collation: xxiv and 491 pp.;—13 unnumbered pages for index and errata;—48pp. for Curæ Secundæ.

BACONI de Vervlamio Historia naturalis et experimentalis de ventis, etc. Amstelodami, ex officina Elzeviriana. Anno 1662. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xvi and 232 pp.;—16 pp. of index.

—— Historia regni Henrici Septimi Angliæ regis. Amstelodami, ex officina Elzeviriana. Anno 1662. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: 403 pp.;—5 pp. of index.

—— Scripta in natvrali et vniversali philosophia. Amstelodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1653. Sm. 12mo.

It appears that Louis Elzevier only printed the sheet bearing the signature x, and the six preliminary leaves. The printer of the remainder was probably J. de Jonge.

Collation: xii and 495 pp.;—between pp. 336 and 337, a folded sheet.

—— Sermones fideles, ethici, politici, œconomici. Amstelodami, ex officina Elzeviriana, 1662. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: 404 pp.;—4 pp. of index.

—— Sylva sylvarum, sive hist. naturalis, et novus atlas. Amstelodami, apud

Ludovicum Elzevirium. A° 1648. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xxxvi and 612 pp.;—48 pp. of index and errata;—87 pp. for novus atlas.

BACONI de Verulamio. Second edition, ex officina Elzeviriana, 1661.

Is decidedly preferable to the first edition.

Collation: xxxii and 549 pp.;—39 pp. of index unnumbered;—86 pp. for nova atlantis.

BALDE è societate Jesu Lyricorum libri IV, et Epodon lib. unus. Coloniæ Ubiorum, apud Jodocum Kalkovium, 1645. Sm. 12mo.

Some copies are dated 1646, probably to be bound up with the next work.

Collation: xvi and 330 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

—— Sylvæ lyricæ. Coloniæ Vbiorum, apud Iodocum Kalcovium, 1646. Sm. 12mo.

That these books were printed by the Elzeviers is proved by their appearing in the catalogues of 1649 and 1656. According to Millot some copies were printed on thick paper. Kalcovius was a well-known bookseller at Cologne (see Burmanni Syll., vol. iv., p. 161). Balde was born in 1603, and died in 1668. Herder thought much of him, and translated many of his poems into German. Hallam, however, speaks somewhat deprecatingly of him.

Collation: viii and 390 pp.;—1 leaf for privilege and errata;—4 blank pages.

BALZAC. Aristippe, ou de la Covr. A Leide, chez Jean Elzevier, 1658. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xii and 272 pp. (pagination begins with 7);—24 pp. of tables.

—— Second edition, same date, but with title-page engraved by Philippe.

Collation: 259 pp.;—24 pp. of tables;—2 blank leaves.

—— Third edition, à Amsterdam, chez Daniel Elzevier, 1664. Sm. 12mo.

A reprint of the second edition, but inferior. See also under Forgeries.

Collation: The same as the 2nd edition.

—— Les Entretiens de feu monsieur de Balzac. A Leide, chez Jean Elseuier. Anno 1659. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: 396 pp.;—10 pages of tables;—1 blank leaf.

—— Second edition, à Amsterdam, chez Louys et Daniel Elzevier. Anno 1663. Sm. 12mo.

Inferior to first edition.

Collation: 388 pp.;—18 pages of tables;—1 blank leaf.

—— Lettres de feu monsieur de BALZAC à monsieur Conrart. A Leide, chez Jean Elseuier, 1659. Sm. 12mo.

Brunet mentions, on the authority of Ebert, an edition of 1656; but as Girard, in his dedication, states that he only finished his work in 1659, this is evidently a mistake.

Collation: 424 pp.;—4 pp. of tables.

—— Second edition, à Amsterdam, chez les Elzeviers, 1664. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: As 1st edition, but ending with 2 blank leaves.

Collation: xxiv and 440 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

—— Second edition, à Leyden, chez les Elseviers, 1652. Sm. 12mo.

A reprint of the first edition, but containing, instead of Balzac's letter to Courbé, a new epistle to the Elzeviers. This letter, which shows the high esteem in which the Elzeviers were held by Balzac, is given entire as an Appendix. (See Vol. III.).

Collation: xxiv and 432 pp.

—— Third edition, 1656. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xxiv and 404 pp.;—2 blank leaves.

—— Fourth edition, 1678. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xvi and 388 pp.

—— Third edition, à Amsterdam, chez Daniel Elzevier, 1664. Sm. 12mo.

A pretty edition. The works of Balzac, printed by the Elzeviers, consist of six volumes, viz.: Les Lettress choisies. Leyden, 1648 or 1652; Amsterdam, 1656 or 1678.

Les Œvvres diverses. Leyden, 1651 or 1658; Amsterdam, 1664.

Les Lettres à Chapelain. Leyden, 1656; Amsterdam, 1661.

Aristippe. Leyden, 1658 (two editions); Amsterdam, 1664.

Les Entretiens. Leyden, 1659; Amsterdam, 1663.

Les Lettres à Conrart. Leyden, 1659; Amsterdam, 1664.

To these may be added Le Socrate Chrestien, printed by Pluymer, at Amsterdam, in 1662, or by Haagen, at Arnheim, in 1675, in imitation of the Elzeviers' productions, as also the three first collections of letters, Le Prince, and L'Apologie pour M. de Balzac, by Ogier, published in Paris in sm. 12mo., and thus a complete collection of Balzac's works may be secured.

The Leyden series is rarer and prettier than that of Amsterdam, although the latter (with the Aristippe of Leyden) fetched £44 at the De la Villestreux sale. A moderate price for either series would be about £15.

BARRICADES (les) de Paris, en vers burlesques. A Paris, 1649. 4to.

Until Mr. Willems discovered seven Mazarinades* in the Library at the Hague, it was not known that the Elzeviers had printed any. They certainly chose some of the wittiest. No one who has compared these seven pamphlets with the Elzevier 4tos., can doubt their being the

The Catalogue of 1674 mentions an edition of 1652: this is probably a typographical error.

Collation: xvi and 312 pp.

BASSOMPIERRE (Mareschal de). Mémoires. A Cologne, chez Pierre du Marteau, 1665. 2 vols. Sm. 12mo.

This book was printed by the widow of Jean Elzevier for Steucker Brothers, of the Hague. In 1666, having started presses of their own, they reprinted the work with a fine portrait of Bassompierre. Both editions are equally handsome, and the latter fetched as much as £48 at the Montgermont sale. There have been innumerable forgeries of this work.

BIBLIA, dat is, de gantsche Heylige Schrifture, vervattende alle de canonijcke boecken des Ouden en des Nieuwen Testaments. Tot Leyden, by de weduwe ende erffgenamen van Johannes Elzevier, boeckdruckers van de Academie. Met privilegie. Zijn mede te bekomen tot Amsterdam by Louys ende Daniel Elzevier, mitsgaders Abr. vander Burgh, 1663. 3 parts in 1 vol. Folio.

The Bible had been translated in 1637 by order of the Synod of Dordrecht, and printed by Ravestein. Many errors were discovered in the printing, and a catalogue of them issued in 1655 by the same printer. In 1657 his widow reprinted the Bible, correcting former errors. The Elzeviers' edition is a mere reprint of that of 1657. It is well printed, but fetches a very moderate price, except in the case of the large paper copies, which are nearly 19 inches high. This Bible is known as The States' Bible.

Collation: First part, xliv and 936 pp.;—4 double maps.

Second part, xxviii and 334 pp.;—2 double maps.

Third part, iv and 154 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

BIBLIOTHECA HEINSIANA. Lvgd. Batav., apud Johannem de Vive (sic), 1682. 12mo.

De Vivie was the real name of the publisher, but the book was printed by Abraham Elzevier. The library of Heinsius was the finest private collection that had yet been formed in Europe. Its sale produced 23,833 florins, an immense sum for the time. (See Hofman Peerlkamp, de Vita Nederl. qui carmina latina composuerunt, Harlemi, 1838, 8vo, p. 426.)

Collation: i and 374 pp.;—1 blank leaf;—286 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

BLESSEBOIS (P. C.) Le Lion d'Angélie. Histoire amoureuse et tragique. A Cologne, chez Simon l'Africain, 1676. Sm. 12mo.

—— Le Temple de Marsias. A Cologne, chés Simon l'Africain, 1676.

There is only one set of signatures for the two works. It is a very rare book, and the extreme scarcity of this author's Œuvres Satiriques, published by F. L. de Haro of Leyden in 1676, and which has sold for over £60, causes it to be sought after. It is undoubtedly a Leyden Elzevier. The "Lion d'Angelie" is dedicated to "M. Elzevier, capitaine ordinaire de mer pour le service de la république de Hollande, montant aujourd'hui un vaisseau de 70 pièces, appelé le Chêne;" and the "Temple de Marsias," to "très discrète, très pudique et très vertueuse demoiselle Emerentia van Swanevelt, épouse de M. Elzevier." This, no doubt, induced Jean Elzevier to print the book, as captain, afterwards Vice-Admiral, Daniel Elzevier was his son. In good condition, the book is worth about £10.

Collation: Le Lion, 168 pp.;—Le Temple, 44 pp.

BLOEMERTII (A. A.) Singvlaris liber de nobilis et studiosæ juventutis institvtione. Amstelodami, apud Ludovicum Elzevirium, 1653. Sm. 12mo.

A well printed, stupid book. As a kind of appendix, a drama in three acts is given, the principal incident in which is the appearance at a feast of a dead body which an Atheist had jokingly invited to supper. An early version of the statue in Don Giovanni.

Collation: xii and 344 pp.;—1 leaf of errata;—1 blank leaf.

Rare. A fine copy sold for £47 at the Payne sale. The genuine edition is known by the first words of the preface: "Eccovi, Gentilissimi Signori lettori," etc. Though Brunet attributes this edition to Blaeu, the typographical mark proves it to be the work of Daniel Elzevier.

Collation: xxiv and 744 pp.

Collation: 233 pp.;—3 blank leaves.

—— La Politique de la maison d'Avstriche. Avec un discours sur la con-joncture présente des affaires d'Allemagne. De l'élection et couronnement des empereurs et des roys des Romains. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris chez Antoine de Sommaville, 1658. 2 parts in 1 vol. Sm. 12mo.

BOURIGNON (A.) Traitté admirable de la solide vertu. Deuxiesme partie. Qui enseigne le chemin assuré de paradis à tous ceux qui le voudront suivre sans feinte, sans fard et sans hypocrisie. A Amsterdam, chez Pieter Arentz, marchant libraire, aux trois navaux, ruë de la Bourse, 1678. 8vo.

Mr. Campbell, the well-known librarian at the Hague, called Mr. Willem's attention to the following words at the end of the catalogue of Antoinette Bourignon's works at the beginning of the Dutch translation of this book :—

"Het eerste deel der Waare Deugt vint men by Michiel Pietersz.

"Het tweede deele is nu onder de pres, in de Fransche tael, by Daniel Elzevier, boekverkooper, op het Water.

"Den 23 october anno 1677."

This means that in October 1677, the second part of this book was being printed by Daniel Elzevier. On examining it, it is clearly the work of that printer, and from the following entry in the catalogue of 1681, it would appear that the first part had also been printed by the Elzeviers :

"Bourignon (Ant.) de la solide vertu. 8. 2 parties.

"—— première partie séparée."

Bourignon was a celebrated mystic.

Collation: xxiv and 324 pp.;—4 unnumbered pages containing summary.

These volumes are evidently the work of the Amsterdam house. Of the works of Brantôme, this is the only one printed by Daniel Elzevier. The collection may be completed by adding Les vies des Dames illustres de France, Leyden, 1665 (printed by Foppens at Brussels), Les vies des Hommes illustres et grands capitaines estrangers, Leyden, 1665 (printed by Hackius at Leyden) or Leyden 1666 (2 vols. printed by Foppens); Les vies des dames galantes Leyden, 1666 (2 vols., printed at Amsterdam, in all probability by Wolfgang); Les Anecdotes de la cour de France, sous les Rois Henry II. François II., Henri III. et IV., touchant les duels, Leyden, 1722. All these works bear the imprint of Jean Sambix le jeune, à la Sphère. —— The same work. Ex emendatione Ios. Scaligeri. Lvgdvni Batavorvm, ex officina Elzeviriana. Anno 1635. Sm. 12mo.

Four works produced by the Elzeviers may be reckoned their masterpieces: the Cæsar and Pliny of 1635, the Virgil of 1636, and the Imitation, without a date. Of these, the Cæsar, in my opinion, ranks first. Mr. Willems calls it, "Un des plus enviables joyaux qui puissent orner l'écrin d'un Bibliophile." The genuine first edition may be recognised by having the buffalo's head above the dedication, and the pages 149, 335, and 475 numbered in error 153, 345, and 375. The finest known copy is in the National Library of Paris. A tall copy is worth from £12 to £20. There are two reprints under this same date. The first is extremely fine, and is known by the siren's head above the dedication, and by having page 238 numbered 248. The second reprint is very inferior, and has 37 lines to the page instead of 35. Its collation is therefore different, being viii and 526 pp., with 34 pages of index.

Collation: xxiv and 561 pp.;—70 unnumbered pages of index;—3 small maps, generally placed between signatures * and **.

—— The same work. Amstelodami, typis Lvdovici Elzevirii. Sumptibus societatis. 1650. 24mo.

The special value of this catalogue is that it gives the real publishers of works which appeared without address or with a fictitious name attached. It is not nearly so scarce as the other catalogues, but copies should be carefully collated, as many pages are often missing.

Collation: 176 pp. to end of books of theology; —86 pp. for works relating to jurisprudence;—1 blank leaf;—60 pp. for medicine;—200 pp. for miscellaneous books;—2 blank leaves;—120 pp. for French books;—24 pp. for Italian, Spanish, and English

This book had been published by Havius of Dordrecht in 1643, and was purchased by Jean Elzevier, together with the sermons of Jacob Lydius. CHARRON (P.) De la Sagesse. A Leide, chez les Elseviers, 1646. Sm. 12mo.

The first and best of the four editions printed by the Elzeviers. The original edition of Bordeaux, 1601, has been followed. A nice copy is worth about £4.

Collation: xxiv and 663 pp.;—8 pp. of tables.

—— The same book. A. Leide, chez Iean Elsevier, 1656. Sm. 12mo.

The commonest of the four editions.

Collation: xxiv and 621 pp.;—12 unnumbered pages of tables;—3 blank leaves.

—— The same work. A Leide, chez Iean Elsevier. Sm. 12mo.

This undated edition seems to have been printed in 1659, since Jean Elzevier had only started printing one year when he issued the 1656 edition, and the date, 1659, would come midway between that edition and the 1662 Amsterdam edition. This is confirmed by the Catalogus librorum of J. Blaeu, 1659, where that date is given. This edition is not so handsome as that of 1646, but it is rarer, and has fetched as much as £10 to £12. It is an exact reprint of the edition of 1656, reproducing even the mistake of the pagination. From page 264 both editions jump to page 295, and both also omit pages 367 to 376. The only difference is that the edition of 1656 is dedicated to Maximilian of Burgundy, whilst the undated one is dedicated to the Provincial Court of Holland.

Collation: as in 1656 edition.

—— The same work. Amsterdam, chez Louis et Daniel Elsevier, 1662. Sm. 12mo.

Well printed. The value is about £8 to £10, although a copy at the Villestreux sale fetched over £20.

—— Opera. Cum optimis exemplaribus accurate collata. Lvgd. Batavorvm, ex officina Elzeviriana. A° 1642. 10 vols. Sm. 12mo.

There are two editions of vol. ix., one containing 301 pp., includes an apocryphal work, the Consolatio. This should be preferred to the edition in 237 pp., where the Somnium Scipionis replaces the Consolatio. The Somnium is also in vol. x. The edition is extremely handsome, and much sought after, and was printed on two different papers. Although at the Libri sale, one copy, which formerly belonged to Hoym, fetched £61, and was afterwards resold for £197 at the Montgermont sale, a very fine copy is really not worth more than £15 to £20.

At the instigation of the University of Leyden, the States of Holland had issued an edict against the Socinians. The latter replied in an Apologia pro Veritate accusata, Conscripta ab equite polono. This Apology has been attributed by Adry and Pieters to Carpzovius, but according to the Bibliotheca Anti-Trinitariorum, the Polish knight is Jonas Slichtingius. The work of Cocceius is a Calvinistic refutation of this Apology. It was also published in Dutch. (See Cocceius, Verantwoordinge).

Mr. Pieters, misled by a typographical error in the catalogue of 1644, has announced an edition 24mo. Bonaventura and Abraham, of Leyden, had some sixteen years previously commissioned Claudius Sarran to induce Denys Godefroy to complete the commentary begun by his father. In December 1648, he writes to the Elzeviers that Godefroy finally refuses, adding that he is endeavouring to induce Salmasius to take up the matter. (Cl. Sarravii Epistolæ, p. 195.) Salmasius, however, declined. This is the less to be regretted as this Corpus Juris of the Amsterdam house, published in conjunction with Blaeu and Hackius, is perhaps the finest work issued by the Amsterdam presses.

"Le volume a subi par la suite diverses transformations. Car on rencontre des exemplaires avec les addresses suivantes : A Amsterdam, par Lovis Elzevier, et se vendent à Paris chez Henry Le Gras, 1650 ; ou bien : Amsterdam, par Lovis Elzevier, 1650 ; ou bien : Amsterdam, et se vendent à Paris, chez Thomas Joly, 1651 ; ou enfin, sans date : à Paris, chez Guill. Angot. Mais tandis que les titres de 1649 au nom de L. Elzevier et de Le Gras, sont d'impression elzevirienne, les autres titres que nous venons de citer ont été exécutés à Paris.

"Il résulte clairement de là que Le Gras a cédé successivement des parties de l'édition à quelques-uns de ses confrères. C'est même lui qui a fait imprimer en 1650 des titres au nom de L. Elzevier, soit par suite d'un arrangement avec l'imprimeur, soit plutôt qu'il ait cherché à tirer parti de la vogue qui s'attachait aux produits des presses elzeviriennes. Quoi qu'il en soit, il est sûr que cette substitution de titres a été faite à Paris. D'abord les exemplaires signés L. Elzevier, à la date de 1650, portent au lieu de sa marque un simple fleuron typographique. En outre le titre fait corps avec un feuillet blanc qui précède, tandis que le 8e f. limin. n'a pas de correspondant. Enfin l'edition était déjà épuisée à Amsterdam, puisqu'en cette même année 1650 L. Elzevier se décida à en publier une seconde dans le format pet. in-12."

The edition of 1649 is rare, and is worth £5,—in good condition.

No copy of this edition is known, but that it is genuine is proved, first because it is mentioned in the Frankfort Catalogue of 1612, and in that of 1628; and secondly, because Adry must have had it in in his hands, as he mentions the number of pages it contains. The author, according to Willems, was Jean Moncy, schoolmaster at Tiel.

An edition of 1654, with the imprint of Jean and Daniel Elzevier, is quoted in the Motteley catalogue of 1848, with the observation that the title-page seems to have been added to a previous edition. It is probable that Jean and Daniel merely put a new title-page to this edition, as they did to the Paræmia of Apostolius of 1619, and the Commentaries of Gerard Tuningus of 1618.

Every word in the volume is in Greek, even the imprint, as above. This translation of the creed of the Dutch Protestant Church is attributed to Hierotheus, Abbot of Cephalonia. INGENUA et Vera oratio. Lvgdvni, 1602. 4to.

There is no doubt the book was printed by Louis Elzevier, as it appears in the Frankfort catalogues. Lugduni, instead of Lugduni Batavorum, is merely a fraud to avoid suspicions of such a book being printed in a Protestant country.

Collation: 72 pp.

INSTITUTIONES Aulicæ. Amsterodami, apud Lud. Elzeverium. Anno 1642. 18mo.

This is the translation of the second part of the Traicté de la Cour of Du Refuge.

Collation: xxiv and 356 pp.;—2 blank leaves.

—— Primæ Philosophiæ. Lugduni Batavorum, prostant apud Elsevirios. Anno 1640. Sm. 12mo.

Brunet is wrong in giving an edition of 1621, first, because no book of that date bears the imprint of the above; secondly, this edition says

"priore correctior" which presupposes only one, and that would be Patius's edition of 1616; thirdly, because it is not mentioned in any of the catalogues. If Pieters is correct, however, there must be another edition of 1640, as he says his copy bears a foreign mark instead of the Elzevier Hermit.

Collation: xii and 399 pp.

—— The same. Amstelodami, ex officina Elzeviriana, 1669. Cum privilegio sacr. Cæs. Majest. Sm. 12mo.

The frontispiece is sometimes dated 1663 and sometimes 1679. This proves that there were two editions, in the first of which the old frontispiece was used, while in the second a new one was inserted. It is evident, too, that the date of 1669 on the printed title-page is an error for 1679. One edition also has Elseviriana instead of Elzeviriana.

Collation: Like edition of 1652.

—— The same. Amstelodami, apud Danielem Elzevirium, 1676. Cum privilegio Cæsareo. 24mo.

KEMPIS (Thomas a). De imitatione Christi. Lvgdvni, apud Joh: et Dan: Elsevirios. Sm. 12mo.

One of the most beautiful as well as one of the rarest books printed by the Elzeviers. It bears no date, but it was probably produced in 1653, as Jean and Daniel were only partners from 1652 to May 1655, and it is often found bound up with Corneille's French metrical translation of 1653. Good copies (above 128 millimetres) are worth £10 to £15, and one copy (132 millimetres) fetched £28, 10s. at J. T. Payne's sale. The MacCarthy copy measured 134 millimetres.

Collation: 257 pp.;—3 blank leaves.

—— The same. Lugduni, ex officina Elzeviriana, 1658. Sm. 12mo.

Was evidently printed at Amsterdam, not at Leyden.

The first, which has the same number of pages as the Elzevir edition, is easily detected by having page 229 numbered 329. Another, also with 583 pp., has the last page unnumbered. The last edition has only 576 pp.

Ryer, sieur de la Garde Malezair. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris, chez Antoine de Sommaville, 1649. Avec privilége du Roy. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xvi and 692 pp.

"Les premiers exemplaires, copiant l'édition de Paris (chez Antoine de Sommaville, 1647, in-4), contiennent la dédicace au chancelier, comprenant 4 pages. Louis, qui ne la réitérait pas, la fit supprimer après quelques tirages ; voilà pourquoi le plus grand nombre des exemplaires de cette édition ne renferment que 12 pp. aux pièces prélim.; mais, avec ou sans dédicace, les exemplaires sont très complets d'après le témoignage des signatures." (Millot.)

Brunet and Pieters are wrong in attributing this volume to the Elzeviers of Leyden: everything proves it to have come from Amsterdam, besides which it is so described in Blaeu's Catalogue of 1659. Its value varies from £2 to £4. Be careful not to be taken in by the imitation of the same date, and which can be known by the title page bearing the words "Jouxte la copie" instead of "Suivant la copie."

—— The same, 1672. Sm. 12mo.

Collation: xii and 490 pp.;—1 blank leaf.

MAIMBOURG (L.) Histoire du Lutheranisme. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris, 1681, 2 vols., sm. 12mo.

Collation: Vol. i., 304 pp.;—vol. ii., 268 pp.;—28 pp. of tables.

This is proved to be an Amsterdam Elzevier by the ornaments: that at the head of the dedication is also used in the Malebranche of 1680. It was probably printed before the sale of Daniel Elzevier's plant, and if it dos not appear in the catalogue of 1681 it is probably because it was printed on some other bookseller's account. Another edition of the same date is known with title page and collation similar to this, but it is a forgery, and can be known by the figure of a squirrel which appears on the title page. Maimbourg's other works were subsequently printed in the same style by some Dutch printer (probably Wetstein) who had purchased the Elzevier plant.

MARIGNY (Le.) Lettres de Monseiur (Sic). A la Haye, chez Antoine la Faille, dans la grande salle de la Cour, 1655. Sm. 12mo.

Willems and Nodier attribute this work to Jean Elzevier, but Brunet and Pieters consider it the work of Foppens of Brussels. The former are right, for the printer's device (the sphere) can be verified on the Virgile Travesti of 1651, and the sheets are all signed in fives, the constant practise of the Leyden Elzeviers.

—— Les Œuvres. A Amsterdam, chez Jaques le Jeune, 1675. 5 vols. Sm. 12mo.

Very rare and valuable. A very fine copy, 131 to 132 millimetres, is worth about £100. Anyone interested should read the article of Willems on this edition. As it does not quite contain all Molière's works one should try and add to it: Œuvres posthumes, Amsterdam, Jacques le Jeune, 1684 or 1689, and if possible Le Festin de Pierre, Amsterdam, 1683. Lastly, copies containing the Sganarelle of 1662 are to be preferred to those having the edition of 1674, as it is followed by La Cocue Imaginaire of Donneau de Visé. Each play has a separate title, all bearing the date of 1674, except Sganarelle, (sometimes 1662); L'amour Medecin, 1673; Amphitryon, 1669; George Dandin, 1669; Les Fourberies de Scapin, 1671; Psiche, 1671, and Le Malade Imaginaire, 1673. All but the last being exhausted in 1675, Daniel Elzevier reprinted them in that year. Any of these editions are good, but one must be careful that none of the plays are dated later than 1675.

Collation: Vol. i., 8 pp. of prelim. matter, and 5 plays;—vol. ii., title and five plays;—vol. iii., title and 7 plays;—vol. iv., title and 4 plays;—vol. v., title and 5 plays,

Le Malade Imaginaire consisting of 2 separate pieces.

—— The same. 1679.

The only difference between this and the previous edition is that the Malade Imaginaire forms a single piece. A fine copy is worth about £15 or £20. All the plays should be dated 1679, except Les Femmes Scavantes, 1678; Sganarelle, 1680; La Critique de l'Escole des Femmes, 1680; L'amour Medecin, 1680; Le Sicilien, 1680; George Dandin, 1680 or 1681; Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme, Les Fourberies de Scapin and Psiché, all 1680; et L'ombre de Molière, 1681.

Collation: like the edition of 1675.

—— Les Précieuses ridicules, comédie. Suivant la copie imprimée à Paris, 1674. Sm. 12mo.

OBEILH (d') Trogo Pompeio lib. XLIV. A Amiens, pour la Veuve du (sic) Robert Hubant, ruë de Beaupuis, 1671. Avec privilége du Roy. Sm. 12mo.

One of the rarest of the Elzeviers, and has sold for as much as £32. Some copies are said to bear the imprint of Daniel Elzevier, but the existence of but one copy seems to be authenticated. Daniel was condemned in 1687 for making use of a false name on the title-page of this book, and a large number were seized in Paris by the French Government, hence probably its rarity.

A poor but rare edition.

Collation: xxiv and 444 pp.

—— The same. Lvgd. Batav., ex officina Elzeviriana. A° 1636. Sm. 12mo.

A lovely, rare, but incorrect edition. It sells at very high prices, viz., from £10 to £50. There are three editions of the same date. The original has the fragment of letter before the Bucolics: Ego vero, etc., printed in red, as also the dedication on p. 92. The reprints are worth about £1.

Collation: xl and 411 pp.;—43 pp. of index; —1 blank leaf;—1 map facing p. 92.

—— The same, 1676. Sm. 12mo.

This edition was printed on two different sized papers. The larger (over 170 millimetres) is very rare, and worth £20 to £30. There were but 48 printed. (See correspondence of Daniel Elzevier.) Part of the edition was issued in 1676, and part in 1679. The latter may be known by the word lector forming the fifth word in the address to the reader. They also vary sometimes from the original issue in the contents of the prelim. matter. The text is extremely correct. Beware of the forgery (see under Forgeries).

Collation: xlviii and 307 pp.;—29 pp. of tables; —1 blank leaf;—1 map facing p. 84.

APPENDIX I.

List of Forgeries bearing the imprint of the Elzeviers.

1641.—CLUVERII (P.) Introductionis in universum (sic) geographiam libri vi. Apud Elzevirios. Sm. 12mo.

1645.—SERRE (de la). Le Secretaire à la mode. Chez Bonaventure Elseuier. 24mo.

1648.—FLORI (L. A.) Historiæ romanæ lib. iv. sumptibus Elzevirus (sic). 24mo.

1649.—COMMINES (P. de). Memoires, chez les Elzeviers. Sm. 12mo.

∵ An exact reprint of the real Elzevier edition of 1648, but rather larger in size.

—— CONFESSION of Faith and the larger and shorter catechisms, &c. Amsterdam, printed by Leuice Elsever, for Andrew Wilson, and are to be sold at his shop in Edinburgh. 1649. 2 parts in 1 vol.

∴ This book appeared in the Caxton Loan Exhibition 1877. It belonged to Mr

Laing of the Advocates' Library. As the apparently only English work printed by the Elzeviers it caused a great sensation, but the mere sight of the volume was enough to satisfy anyone having the slightest knowledge of the Elzeviers that the volume could never have issued from their presses. Neither type, size, nor mode of pagination was in any way like theirs, and lastly, even the name of the supposed printer was atrociously murdered.

1652.—LIPSIUS (J.) de Constantia. Typis Ludovici Elzevirii. Sm. 12mo.
